

Local News

: Personals :

Alvin Nance of Monterey was in town Saturday.

R. Glenn Kay spent today in Greenwood on business.

J. E. Taggart of Mt. Carmel was in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Charlie Gilliam of Watts was in town Saturday shopping.

Mr. W. J. Duncan and W. J., Jr., spent last week in Atlanta.

Miss Sarah Ella Drennan is visiting friends in Greenwood this week.

Mrs. W. W. Willson of Level Land was a visitor to the city Saturday.

Miss Mary Jones of Sumter is visiting her cousin Miss Rebecca Jones.

Mr. George Wood was a visitor in Atlanta last Wednesday and Thursday.

Misses Hattie and Julia Rodgers of Antreville were in town Saturday shopping.

Miss Myrtle Wright of Baltimore milliner for Philson and Henry, arrived in the city Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Hill of Washington, D. C., is here on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hill.

Mrs. Mary L. Campbell of Greenville is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. McCord on Magazine street.

Miss Dora Manning of Calhoun Falls, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Darricott.

Miss Madge Pressley of Sharon is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clifton Sprouse.

Mrs. Floyd Graves returned today from a visit to her mother in Greenville.

Miss Elsie Culbreth and Henry Canfield of Greenwood spent Sunday with Miss Permelia Culbreth.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Ashley and daughter Dorothy, spent last week in Chester and Rock Hill with relatives.

Andrew Hill came home from Clemson Friday and was a guest at Davis Kerr's dinner party Friday night.

Kenneth Baker came over from Greenwood Friday and was the guest of his friend Davis Kerr Friday night.

Misses Ruth Woodhurst, Grace Eakin, Mary Sharpe and Wyatt Knox, John Reid and Thomas Mundy spent Sunday in Laurens.

Thomas Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Maxwell, left this morning for Spartanburg where he will enter Wofford College.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scott and Mr. Joe McCarrell of Greenville spent Sunday in the city with Mrs. W. L. McCord and family.

Misses Margaret Cox and Helen Haigler leave tomorrow for Columbia to resume their studies at Chicago College.

Miss Elizabeth Penney has accepted a position in the millinery department at Mrs. Jas. S. Cochran's and began her new work today.

Miss Nona Barksdale left Saturday for Monroe where she will visit for several days with Mrs. J. D. Bundy before returning to Coker College.

Society

THE BOOK CLUB.

The Book Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock with Mrs. Jas. F. Bradley on Wardlaw street.

TEACHERS RECEPTION.

The Parent Teacher association will give a reception to the teachers of the City Schools at the home of Miss May Robertson, Friday evening, September 16, from 8:30 to 10 p. m. to which the parents and young ladies and gentlemen of Abbeville school district are invited.

No other invitation will be issued and it is hoped that parents, as well as the young people will be present to meet and welcome the teachers to our city.

A DINNER PARTY.

Mr. Davis Kerr gave a pleasant dinner party Friday night in honor of Frank Gary and the young people who make up his house guests. Twenty-two guests were seated at the beautifully appointed table and enjoyed the elaborate dinner served. After dinner dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The following young people were present: Misses Victoria Howie, Sarah and Gladys Barnes, Mildred Cochran, Margaret Burgess, Nona Barksdale, Elizabeth Jones, Edna Bradley, Mary Hill Harris and Mary Greene, and Bernard Miller, Kenneth Baker, Frank Leslie, Percy Leach, Frank Gary, Weber Wilson, Billy Bradley, Allen Haskell, Sanford Howie, Andrew Hill and William Hughes.

ON 16th BIRTHDAY

Jack Edmunds entertained several of his friends Saturday evening at a dinner party in honor of his 16th birthday. A salad course with sandwiches and other delectables were served. The party ended after a trip to the movies. Present were, Foster

Barnwell, Frank Neuffer, Ray Swetenburg, Hugh Bradley, Jessie Hall, Edwin Barksdale and Jack Edmunds.

DANCE FOR MINORS

Francis Glenn entertained at a dance Saturday night for the young men and women of the teen age. About 24 couples enjoyed dancing for several hours, interspersing the light promenade with visits to the punch bowl. Cake was a delicious additional refreshment.

TEACHING IN UNION.

Miss Louise McDill left Saturday for Union where she teaches in the Graded school of the city.

BACK TO COLLEGE

Miss Victoria Howie and Miss Mary Greene left today for Atlanta where they will resume their studies at Agnes Scott College.

BACK TO W. AND L.

Davis Kerr leaves on Wednesday for Virginia where he will enter upon his second year's work at Washington and Lee University.

TO CONVERSE

Miss Mary White left this morning for Spartanburg where she will enter Converse College. Miss White carried off the honors at the High school last year and her friends wish for her a successful college course.

A SPECIAL MEETING

There was a special meeting of the Young People's Christian Union at the Associate Reformed church Sabbath evening. Miss Edna Bradley and Mr. Ralph Lyon who will be leaving soon to resume their college work, made talks on mission work and the program was otherwise varied with songs and readings. The organization has about forty members.

—Watch the label on your paper and

Opera House FRIDAY

One Day Only

William McMill's Production

"WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS"

With CONRAD NAGEL, LOIS WILSON AND OTHERS.

WHO RUNS THIS WORLD ANYWAY? Masterful man, of course. And women—well, some one must "FEED THE BRUTE" Some one must smooth his mighty care-worn brow. But while man thinks he runs the world, the woman smiles, and—what she knows about him—

Maude Adams brilliant stage success, with its charm and humor and heart pathos, transferred to a screen delight for both sexes and all ages.

ADDED—TWO REEL LARRY SEMON COMEDY.

15 Cents ADMISSION 35 Cents

SPECIAL—SATURDAY

"TOO WISE WIVES"

With CLAIRE WINDSOR, PHILLIPS SMALLLEY, MONA LISA and others.

Are American women spoiled by husbands who are too easy? Have they come to be too wise, too wasteful, too fond of pleasure and ease? A tale of two wives who thought they knew things they didn't. A tale of two husbands who didn't know things that they should.

ALSO HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY

15 Cents ADMISSION 35 Cents

FREE GASOLINE

Holder of ticket No. 439 was the winner of the five gallons of free gas given away last week. It's here waiting for him.

We are still holding five gallons won by ticket 858, which has not been called for.

Sherard Brothers

Filling Station.

ANNOUNCING FALL FASHION SHOW

We extend to every lady of this county and vicinity a very cordial and urgent invitation to visit our store on Thursday, September 15th.

We will have on display New Fall Modes in their most fascinating and artistic expressions. The styles and materials present so many varieties that one has to see them, even for the style information alone.

The buying public must realize that prices are on the upward trend. Our stock was bought when prices were at rock bottom which enables us to give our customers the benefit of same.

COME, you will be delighted with the variety, charmed with the fashion, impressed with the skill that has made these showings possible.

Our Show Will Consist of

New Fall Suits, New Fall Dresses, New Fall Coats, New Fall Skirts, New Fall Sweaters, New Fall Oxfords, New Fall Silks, New Fall Petticoats, New Fall Blouses:

IN FACT EVERYTHING TO COMPLETE YOUR FALL WARDROBE.

MILLINERY

If perchance you imagine that early fall hats are freakish—just visit our Fall Fashion Show. Thursday. Never have hats been more becomingly or attractively fashioned than this season's modes.

TELL YOUR FRIENDS TO MEET YOU AT PHILSON'S THURSDAY FOR THE SHOW
DON'T FORGET THE DATE

PHILSON & HENRY